

“In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus: who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness.”

Philippians 2:5-7

“Leader is mentioned only six times in the King James version of the bible, but servant is mentioned over nine hundred times. So why is it that we have so many Leadership Conferences?” Author unknown

A servant. That automatically brings to my mind Jesus bent down washing the feet of his disciples. Being willing to do the most menial tasks, the dirty jobs, or the things no one else wants to do in service to others. But it is not always at that level. Often it just requires giving of oneself, loving someone, praying for someone, listening to them, fixing a meal, or just going the extra mile to make someone feel special or cared for. Not everyone is born to be in a leadership role, but we are all capable of being servants in some manner or another. Jesus, the Messiah, the son of the Father, the second part of the Trinity, saw himself as a servant, and don't we desire to be in his likeness? Look around you...who can you be a servant to in the upcoming week.
